SMART COLOUR CHART

How This Chart Works

Look out for the Smart Colour Chart icon on selected paving products.

It means that the products on that page are generally available in the colours listed here. Some colour options may not be available depending on location, product range, and current stock holding.

PLEASE NOTE:

If you do not see the Smart Colour Chart icon on a product page it means that other colour options are available for that product. This is because it is made by a different brick manufacturer.

In some cases the alternative colour options are depicted on the product page, when it is not, please consult your SA Paving Concepts & Design Specialist for the available colour ranges.
